NOTES

From the Director

Welcome to the Wilton HS production of The Addams Family! There are so many reasons to come out and experience this musical! The characters are entertaining and familiar. You may remember the TV show from the 1960's, you could have enjoyed the movies in the 1990's, or you were introduced to the family through the show Wednesday on Netflix. They're creepy and they're kooky!

The musical telling of this mysterious and spooky family offers a compelling and entertaining score that is every theatre educator's dream. At every turn, the script offers the opportunity to showcase the wide scope of talent that is here at Wilton High School.

The students that came together to bring you this performance are the best reason to make the choice to be here for this show. Every member of the cast, crew, and orchestra came together over many rehearsals to collaborate and create what you are going to experience. The hope is that you will find some joy and take in some of the important themes the play offers.

The Addams Family are into the dark side of life, embracing the notion that death is just around the corner, and though that may not your life philosophy, there is something to glean from it. The Addams teach us to fully live each moment, no matter how dark or painful, because only then, are we truly alive. Each member of the Addams Family from every generation accepts the other completely and embraces adversity as a collective. Aren't the tough parts of life easier to experience when we experience them together?

We have all chosen to be here for this performance to be entertained and to celebrate the efforts of these amazing actors, crew members, musicians, and designers. We hope you truly enjoy each moment we all share together in the theatre tonight. I will speak for myself and say it has been a joyful three months not only getting to know the devoted WHS faculty and talented cast, but to share ideas together, show up for one another, and celebrate each other's imagination.

Please sit back and allow the cast, crew, and musicians of The Addams Family captivate you and let us celebrate what it is be an Addams!

With Love and Pride,

Maria Pizzarello
Director

NOTES

From the LTC President

Welcome to The Addams Family!

On behalf of the entire cast and crew of The Addams Family, thank you for coming and supporting us and our show! We could never do what we do without an amazing audience and the support of our families and friends.

I began participating in theater when I was in sixth grade. I was terrified and shy, and never talked unless someone else talked to me. If you told sixth-grade me that I would become the president of the WHS Little Theater Club after four incredible years of theater at the high school, I never would have believed you. Now, I couldn't picture my time at the high school ending in any way other than as a part of this amazing community. As a senior who has participated in shows for all four years of high school, it pains me to say goodbye to the community that became my safe place. While I will be continuing to participate in theater in college, I know that nothing will be the same as this community that I've had the honor of being a part of.

Theater is special for countless reasons and every show is different, from comedy to drama to Disney. While participating in the shows has truly been incredible, the most influential factor in my time in WHS Theater has been the people. Every person in the cast, crew, and production team, makes theater the amazing experience that it is. We hope you know that your support is essential and appreciated, not only because it improves our shows, but because it gives us the opportunity to create the WHS Theater family.

Thank you again from everyone involved in The Addams Family. We have all been working insanely hard for months, and we can't wait to share this story with you. Your support means the world to everyone involved in theater at the high school, and it makes a huge difference.

Enjoy the show!
